THE NIGHT WINDOW

Exhibitor – Short-film development pitch

Hook: A small lit room can fill a screen through hands, faces and a deadline.

Logline: Before midnight, a repair-kiosk owner must choose between her lease deposit and correcting a battery record that could save a courier cooperative from paying for her mistake.

The short may complement a curated program about work or urban nights; no theatrical bookings, audience evidence or finished delivery master exists. Screen inserts require projection testing so the ethical mechanics are legible. Estimated duration is not yet a timed cut.

Proposed next step: Assess a future finished film within a specific program and verify rights, access and technical delivery.

Status and scope: Original short, revised host-agent demonstration draft. No cast, finance, partners or distribution attached. Single-agent self-review; no independent endorsement. Local draft only, unsent. This small demo does not establish feature-quality guarantees.
