THE NIGHT WINDOW

Awards – Short-film development pitch

Hook: Assess the work before inventing a campaign.

Logline: Before midnight, a repair-kiosk owner must choose between her lease deposit and correcting a battery record that could save a courier cooperative from paying for her mistake.

Performance opportunities lie in opposed practical goals and the failed attempt to maintain routine after a loss. Sound and prop storytelling could support a restrained short. No nomination, qualifying status, judging preference or eligibility is asserted. A completed cut and exact current rules are prerequisites to any campaign.

Proposed next step: Use an eventual independent screening response to decide whether a limited campaign is sensible.

Status and scope: Original short, revised host-agent demonstration draft. No cast, finance, partners or distribution attached. Single-agent self-review; no independent endorsement. Local draft only, unsent. This small demo does not establish feature-quality guarantees.
