THE NIGHT WINDOW

Public funder – Short-film development pitch

Hook: A fictional short about who bears the cost of a corrected record.

Logline: Before midnight, a repair-kiosk owner must choose between her lease deposit and correcting a battery record that could save a courier cooperative from paying for her mistake.

Two women act as business owners/workers with conflicting goals; neither is a lesson-delivery device. Potential public benefit could include accessible screenings and a moderated discussion about work, if partners agree. No grant program, eligibility, social-impact evidence or institutional endorsement exists.

Proposed next step: Identify a suitable actual program, verify rules and budget access deliverables before applying.

Status and scope: Original short, revised host-agent demonstration draft. No cast, finance, partners or distribution attached. Single-agent self-review; no independent endorsement. Local draft only, unsent. This small demo does not establish feature-quality guarantees.
