THE NIGHT WINDOW

Talent representative – Short-film development pitch

Hook: Two compact roles with playable contradiction and shared physical action.

Logline: Before midnight, a repair-kiosk owner must choose between her lease deposit and correcting a battery record that could save a courier cooperative from paying for her mistake.

Mae must remain a credible repairer while conceding she mis-sold a part; Inez must demand accountability without hiding her own temptation. This is an unfinanced, unshot short with open casting, not an offer of employment or a career guarantee. No performer or representative has been approached.

Proposed next step: If independently evaluated as suitable, request a script read and discuss schedule, compensation and safe working conditions.

Status and scope: Original short, revised host-agent demonstration draft. No cast, finance, partners or distribution attached. Single-agent self-review; no independent endorsement. Local draft only, unsent. This small demo does not establish feature-quality guarantees.
